THE HEADMISTRESS Movie Wraps Production

Indie Horror Feature Wraps Production after Eleven Days of Principal Photography

Oconomowoc, WI – The supernatural horror-thriller THE HEADMISTRESS wrapped production this week after eleven (11) days of principal photography on location in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. The film is the second feature from the makers of last year’s indie horror hit THE NURSERY.

“It was an aggressive schedule with a lot of long days,” said the film’s producers, Glenn Chung, Christopher A. Micklos, and Jay Sapiro. “But our phenomenal cast and crew pushed through and did top-notch work. Indie horror fans are going to be thrilled with the results!”

In THE HEADMISTRESS, a debt-ridden young teacher inherits an abandoned lakefront inn; and when she takes a group of potential buyers to visit the property, they discover a dark, sinister secret...as well as a malignant supernatural presence determined to keep them there forever. The film was shot on location at an abandoned nunnery in southern Wisconsin.

The cast of THE HEADMISTRESS is led by Chicago-based actress Katherine Bellantone, making her feature film debut, and includes Thomas J. McCarthy, Ayden Skye, Tom Dacey Carr, Hunter O’Harrow, DeChantel Kosmatka, David Sapiro, and Valerie Meachum.

THE HEADMISTRESS is the second feature from Three Tortured Minds. Their award-winning first film, THE NURSERY, was released last year by Uncork’d Entertainment and is widely available on DVD, cable- and satellite-on-demand, and on multiple digital streaming services, including iTunes, Vudu, Amazon Prime, Tubi, and many more. Reviewers called THE NURSERY “chilling”, “awesome”, “creepy as hell”, “a real surprise”, and “one of the best horror films to come out of 2018”!
