THE HEADMISTRESS Adds Composer Tasos Eliopoulos

Award-Winning Composer Tasos Eliopoulos Will Score the Upcoming Indie Horror Feature

Madison, WI – Three Tortured Minds, the producers of the upcoming supernatural horror-thriller THE HEADMISTRESS, announced today that they have added award-winning Greek composer Tasos Eliopoulos to the production to compose the film's score.

"We are so excited to have Tasos Eliopoulos on board to score THE HEADMISTRESS," said the film's producers, Glenn Chung, Christopher A. Micklos, and Jay Sapiro. "He is a tremendously talented composer and musician, and we cannot wait to hear his interpretation of the film. We are extremely fortunate to have him on our team!"

Tasos Eliopoulos was born in Athens, Greece, and began composing music at age 5 on the piano. At age 7, he entered the Athens Conservatory to study classical violin, piano, harmony, counterpoint, orchestration, and composition with George Diamantis, student of Pierre Lantier. He was also a member of the chorus and symphonic orchestra of the Athens Conservatory, where he completed studies in cinema music, music and technology, and sound engineering.

Since 2014, Tasos Eliopoulos has scored over 30 films in the United States and Internationally, garnering several awards along the way, including Best Score at the 2019 Philadelphia Independent Film Festival (WHAT LIES AHEAD), Best Original Score at the 2018 Long Island International Film Expo (SIGI: DRIVER), and Best Music at the 2018 Montreal International Film Festival (SIJI: DRIVER). In THE HEADMISTRESS, a debt-ridden young teacher inherits an abandoned lakefront inn; and when she takes a group of potential buyers to visit the property, they discover a dark, sinister secret...as well as a malignant supernatural presence determined to keep them there forever. The film was shot on location at an abandoned nunnery in southern Wisconsin.

THE HEADMISTRESS is the second feature from Three Tortured Minds. Their award-winning first film, 2018's THE NURSERY, was released by Uncork'd Entertainment and is widely available on DVD, cable- and satellite-on-demand, and on multiple digital streaming services, including Tubi, iTunes, Vudu, Amazon Prime, and many more. Reviewers called THE NURSERY "chilling", "awesome", "creepy as hell", "a real surprise", and "one of the best horror films to come out of 2018"!
